THE ALDINE. PROSPECTUS FOR 1872. FIFTH YEAR. A Representative and Champion of American Art.

THE ALDINE. While issued with all the regularity, its scope of the temporary or timely interest, its character of ordinary periodicals, it is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white.

NEW FEATURES FOR 1872. Art Department. The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to our enterprise, wherever it has been introduced, has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory.

Literary Department. Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get-up of the work, too much dependence on appearance may be justly feared. It is only necessary to state that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been entrusted to Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODOLSKY, who has received assurance of assistance from the most popular writers and poets of the country.

A Chromo to Every Subscriber. was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased and reproduced, at great expense, the best of the most popular of the original pictures. No American chromo, which will be at least as good as the best of the ALDINE and its kind, will be delivered free, with the January number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance.
